

Leadership Announcement

Monday January 13, 2020

Regina, Saskatchewan

Praxis Consulting is pleased to announce that Kathryn Pollack is joining the firm as Chief Strategy Officer and Partner*.

Ms. Pollack holds an MBA from the University of Regina along with a diverse professional background. She has worked in small and large businesses, large corporations, executive government and non-profits. Kathryn's experience in the corporate world, her visionary leadership style and passion for community engagement will be a great asset for Praxis as we look to grow our firm's presence and impact here in Saskatchewan.

Quotes:

"I am thrilled that Kathryn Pollack is joining Praxis. We are proud that our reputation affords us the advantage to attract such an outstanding and talented professional. Kathryn will play a pivotal role in our firm's growth plan and will provide tremendous value to our current and future clients." ~ Valerie Sluth

"Partnering with a professional who has a reputation such as Val Sluth holds is an incredible opportunity; Val's impact and the quality of the Praxis brand are top notch. I am looking forward to bringing my perspective and skills to the table to be part of the future of the firm along with growth and prosperity in our province more broadly." ~ Kathryn Pollack

Ms. Pollack's pending partnership in the firm increases Praxis' ability and capacity to help our clients achieve growth and excellence through the delivery of our top-quality services.
